

◆ Drifter Fence

Drifter fences are short fence segments designed to alter the routine trailing path of domestic livestock and wildlife to prevent erosion and allow eroded areas to revegetate.

A side gully along Comanche Point Drainage is protected from further erosion by a "V" shaped drifter fence. Domestic livestock and wildlife are no longer trailing down the gully and it is beginning to heal.